Fourteen year old Calvin Bradley was shot in the heart while playing in an impoverished playground by a rent-a-pig named LeRoy Green. This pig, LeRoy Green works for Industrial Towel and Uniform Company and this company has a history which indicates how a pig like LeRoy Green could be hired, and a situation resulting in the death of Calvin Bradley could take place.

According to witnesses, Calvin Bradley and four other companions were playing on an abandoned mattress in an alley behind 2137 W. Madison, several buildings adjacent to the Industrial Towel Company. One of the company trucks came down the alley and the youths were forced to move the mattress so the truck could continue down the alley. Pig LeRoy Green, who had been drinking all night (while on duty as a security guard) staggered down the alley and cursed at the youths telling them to get the he-- out of the alley. Now dig this, pig Green works for Industrial Towel which is approximately 3/4 of a block away from where the youths were playing, and therefore he had no legal rights to tell them to do anything.

After the truck left the youths began playing on the mattress once again. This time pig Green looked down the alley, spotted the youths, drew his revolver and fired at random, striking Calvin Bradley in the heart. One of Calvin's brothers said that had the bullet not struck Calvin it would have struck him.

Calvin's father (Chester Bradley) was on his way home from work, it was about 11:30 or 12 midnight, when he observed the flashing lights of a pig car going by, but little did he know that his son was laying dead in it. When he arrived home, his wife Janie informed him of what had happened. Chester Bradley immediately began to investigate and attempted to put what had happened together. After his investigation, Chester said that he was sure that his son had been murdered and he demanded that pig LeRoy Green be brought to justice.

Pig LeRoy Green was arrested and charged with murder, however the state showed that it had no intention of really prosecuting pig Green, because they gave him a $3,500 bond on a murder charge, and normally you can't even get bond on a murder charge. For Chester Bradley this served to be very educational, because he thought of his uncle who is in jail on a $25,000 bond for assault and battery charges and he was defending himself against an attack at his place of employment. This showed clearly that there is no justice when pigs commit crimes against the people, only more laws to help the pigs commit more crimes.

Chester Bradley came to the Black Panther Party because he understood that he could no longer have any faith in this present system. He explained that he had sent letters to Senator Percy and received no reply, no one had come forth except the Black Panther Party and let him know that his son's death will not be forgotten. The Party provided pall bearers for the body of Calvin Bradley, and we promised that through our newspaper, which is our voice, we would let the world know what Industrial Towel and Uniform Service and their lacky nigger guard pig LeRoy Green did.

We say that the charge is murder, and that Industrial Towel a long-time capitalist institution which pays slave labor prices, discriminates against women in wages (hires more women in order to pay them lower wages), is guilty of murder along with pig Green.

We have assured Chester Bradley and his 10 remaining children, that the Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention is for the purpose of setting the machinery which will deal with pigs like LeRoy Green, and capitalists like Industrial Towel. We say that they should be kicked out of our community, and that only death is befitting them.

In order for us to prevent more and more situations like this from taking place, we must move in a collective manner to secure our community from the pigs. When we write a new constitution, we shall not forget Calvin Bradley, or the many other Black youths who have fallen at the hands of the oppressor.
