BLACK COMMUNITY MOUNTS PROTEST OVER RISING L.A.P.D. SHOOTINGS, BRUTALITY

Los Angeles cop terrorizes Black people. Already this year, 27 people, the majority of them Black and poor, have been gunned down by the notorious Los Angeles Police Department. A broadbased coalition of Black organizations and individuals has filed suit against the LAPD, demanding full disclosure of all citizens' complaints against police personnel.

(Los Angeles, Calif.) - The infamous Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), responsible for the murders of 27 people since January of this year, is under increasing attack from this city's Black and poor community — frequent victims of the murderous and vicious police attacks.

Numerous acts of police violence in recent weeks prompted a broadbased coalition of Black organizations and individuals to file suit against the LAPD, demanding a full disclosure of all citizens' complaints filed against Department personnel. (See THE BLACK PANTHER, August 13, 1977.)

Among the incidents the Black and poor community is protesting are the following:

- The "accidental" August 20 shooting death of a 31-year-old Black man by police who chased the car, allegedly stolen, he was driving for three miles before they apprehended him;

- The unjustified, brutal beating of two brothers in Watts;

- The false arrest and harassment of a teenage member of the Southern California Chapter of the Black Panther Party, who, along with another youth, witnessed police beat two other Black teens; and

- The senseless murder of an unarmed, biochemist who allegedly "assumed a martial arts stance" against an LAPD sergeant who was chasing him for disturbing the peace (see last week's issue of THE BLACK PANTHER); and

- The beating by a White cop of an off-duty
