JOANNE LITTLE TO ADDRESS OAKLAND VICTORY RALLY

(Oakland, Calif.) - JoAnne Little will make her first major public appearance since her victorious acquittal last week, in Oakland under the sponsorship of the Black Panther Party. JoAnne told THE BLACK PANTHER, in a telephone conversation from Raleigh, North Carolina: "I want to demonstrate physically my deep appreciation for the role played by the Black Panther Party in mobilizing the people's power in my defense."

JoAnne will be presented at an invitational press conference on Friday morning, August 22, at the Oakland Community Learning Center in East Oakland. A grand Victory Rally, at which JoAnne will be the keynote speaker, will be held in Oakland on the weekend, at a time and place to be announced.

JoAnne's acquittal of the charge of murdering White jailer, 62-year-old Clarence Alligood, who forcibly raped her at ice pick point in her cell in the Beaufort County Jail on August 27 last year, was reportedly described by Larry Little (no relation), national spokesperson for the JoAnne Little Defense Committee, and coordinator of the Winston-Salem Chapter of the Black Panther Party, as the "first victory for the people in North Carolina."

On leaving the courtroom JoAnne told assembled newsmen that she owed her freedom to "the Power of the People" who rallied around her defense. In concrete expression of her appreciation for that support, JoAnne absented herself from the crash of
