"I don't think that we can say the organized attempt to destroy the B.P.P. was successful. What it has done, is that it brought to the attention of the American people the atrociousness of the American Government, in terms of its subjects. People moving for their freedom. The very fact that they attacked us so openly shows that they're a very brutal people. That they are barbarous, criminal elements against society. But as far as their successfulness is concerned, they're not successful. They can never exterminate the Black Panther Party because the Black Panther Party is not just a party for itself but rather it's a party for the people."

David Hilliard, Chief of Staff, Black Panther Party
